

START DATE: August 1, 2024

The Benjamin School is a premier PK3 - Grade 12 independent, coeducational day school with campuses in North Palm Beach and Palm Beach Gardens.

TEACHING RESPONSIBILITIES:

At The Benjamin School, our teachers set high standards for their students and then do everything they can to help them achieve those standards. We are looking for teachers who will help our students (in and out of the classroom) become self-directed, independent learners with superior collegiate preparation.

The ideal candidate will be able to incorporate various styles of teaching and approaches to the students and material. This person must desire to work with students in a challenging, college-preparatory environment and possess strong interpersonal and written communication skills.

Qualified candidates should demonstrate a passion for mathematics, intellectual curiosity, strong communication skills, the ability to work within a team, skills to engage and inspire students in the pursuit of learning, a commitment to ongoing professional development, an understanding of the ebbs and flows of independent school life, and, a sense of humor and humility.

The person filling this position will need to teach a range of mathematics, from foundational secondary levels through AP Calculus, depending on the individual talents the candidate brings to Benjamin.

GENERAL PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS:

The most desirable candidates will have the following background or comparable experience:

- A bachelor's degree with a minimum of three years teaching high school mathematics; an advanced mathematics degree preferred.
- Experience with project-based teaching and collaborative learning.
- Experience in integrating technology into the curriculum.
- Ability to work effectively with parents as a partner in each student's educational experience.
- Ability to use a variety of communication/teaching styles and methods.
- The ability to hold students to a high and articulated standard of performance.

AS WITH EACH POSITION AT BENJAMIN, THE FOLLOWING KEY EXPECTATIONS APPLY TO ALL TBS EMPLOYEES:

- Demonstrates support for the School's mission and policies.
- Consistently models The Benjamin School values.
- Builds positive interpersonal relationships with colleagues and students by establishing effective communication through listening, responsiveness, openness, availability, and approachability.
- Takes ownership in displaying positive work ethic and behaviors and encourages this attitude in others.
- Maintains proficiency in the field through personal and professional development that strengthens the role.
- Mentors students as part of the Upper School advisory program.
- Ability to work as part of a team, a sense of humor, and humility.
- Experience with coaching and/or club sponsorship.
- Strong communication and collaborative skills.
- The position includes other duties as assigned by the Head of the Upper School.
